Offense charged: Distribution of Child Pornography; Receipt of Child Pornography; Possession of Child Pornography

Date of Detention Hearing: November 19, 2013.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

01 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

02 1. Defendant is charged by Complaint with distributing, receiving and possessing 03 images explicitly depicting the forcible rape of infants and young children. A search of his 04 residence allegedly yielded an organized collection of 14,000 images of child pornography and 05 1700 videos. Also discovered during the search of defendant's computer were emails and web 06 chats in which he allegedly asserted that he had raped his 9 year old sister in law and engaged in 07 sexual activity with his children's 14 year old babysitter. Defendant's ex-wife was 14 years 08 old when she became pregnant as a result of having sex with the defendant, following which 09 they married and had two children. Prior to his arrest, defendant had visitation with his 10 children on alternate weekends and holidays and in the summer. His present girlfriend has six 11 children between the ages of 18 and 10. Defendant currently resides across from a high 12 school. Defendant's job requires him to drive in the areas of Lynnwood, Seattle and Tacoma.

13 2. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to failures to appear in previous 14 cases, although these incidents were a number of years ago. He poses a risk of danger due to 15 the nature of the charges, the graphic nature of the images and emails seized by the government 16 and prior criminal (non-prosecuted) behavior with a minor.

17 3. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 18 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 19 danger to other persons or the community.

20 It is therefore ORDERED:

21 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney

22 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from

02 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 03 counsel;

04 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the 05 person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver 06 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection 07 with a court proceeding; and

08 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
09 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Pretrial Services 10 Officer.
